Mr. E. Henry Knocke
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Knocke,

On behalf of Mrs. Ottinger, our students and myself, I want to express our gratitude for taking time from your busy schedule to talk to us on 4 May 1977. Our classes have been studying a unit on American Foreign Policy. In this unit we study the role of the Central Intelligence Agency in the making of American Foreign Policy. Your talk highlighted this study for us. As a result of our visit, the students left the Agency better informed of the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency in the making of American Foreign Policy and a higher respect and admiration for the many dedicated employees.

Again, thanks to you and [redacted] for your kindness in speaking to our students -- it was an excellent learning experience for all of us.

Very truly yours,
